Camp-A-Rama is an AA & Al-Anon camping retreat open to the entire family! Bring the kids if you got 'em. On your own is great too. Scholarships available. It's a weekend of open speaker meetings, discussion meetings, shared experience, and fun activities for all ages!

Activities include:

Friday - Check-in after 2 PM and setup camp. Our group area is on left after entrance. This area includes the campfire meeting area and large pavilion. If you aren't sure where to set up look for Matt or Bob.

Fri. night - Gratitude meeting under the stars followed by s'mores social; campfire, cigars, music, etc.

Sat. Morning - AA Open Discussion Meeting
Camp-A-Rama Group Conscience
Al-Anon Open Discussion Meeting

Sat. Afternoon - Enjoy the lake, fellowship, whatever 😊

Sat. Night - Potluck dinner followed by raffle, then Al-Anon speaker

Sunday - Men's breakfast (Men COOK everyone eats)
Followed by AA speaker

Need Financial Assistance? . . . Apply for the Joe Schade Scholarship Fund

This fund is for anyone who would like to attend the AA/Al-Anon Camp-A-Rama Weekend and does not have the money to do so. We want to be all inclusive in sharing the fellowship of this program. If you would like to attend Camp-A-Rama and would like to use the Fund, just let us know when registering. No questions asked because that's the way we roll.

Please also remember to bring a raffle item to donate --- all proceeds go to the Fund !!
